Gina R. Cunningham

Executive Director, HomeAid Orange County | Los Angeles

With over 28 years of dedication to HomeAid, Gina R. Cunningham has built an extraordinary career defined by purpose, leadership, and compassion. Beginning with a simple desire to serve the underserved, Gina's journey has evolved into one of visionary leadership - guiding the organization's growth, impact, and regional expansion.

As HomeAid's former Chief Development Officer, Gina raised millions to advance the mission of building new lives for individuals and families experiencing homelessness. Appointed Executive Director in 2019, she continues to lead with strategic insight, fostering meaningful partnerships and driving innovative housing initiatives.

Under her leadership, HomeAid Orange County has added new affordable housing communities for single adults, families, and seniors, creating stability and opportunity for those most at risk. Recently, Gina spearheaded the organization's expansion beyond Orange County to include Los Angeles and Ventura Counties, broadening HomeAid's reach to meet the needs of more than 85,000 people facing homelessness across the region.

Rooted in the values of caring, honesty, respect, and responsibility instilled early through her experiences with the YMCA, Gina leads with integrity and a deep commitment to service. Her courage and determination continue to inspire others to join HomeAid's mission to end homelessness through collaboration and compassion.

A lifelong resident of Orange County, Gina remains deeply connected to her community. In 2023, she was honored with the Barbara J. Stewart Award for Women's Achievement in recognition of her mentorship, leadership, and dedication to empowering others.

Gina serves as Vice Chair of the Commission to Address Homelessness for the County of Orange, is a Leadership Council Member for United to End Homelessness, a founding board member of the Orange Chamber Foundation, and an active member of the Orange Elks Lodge #1475.

Gina was born and raised in Old Towne Orange, where she resides today and is very engaged in her community. She enjoys traveling, live music and sporting events, gardening, and spending time with family, friends - all while continuing to volunteer and give back.
