

EDUCATION: Andrews University

Berrien Springs, Michigan

B.A. in Behavioral Sciences ~ 1976

Pacific Union College Angwin, California ~ 1976 Secondary Teaching Credentials

Chapman University
Orange, CA
M.A. in Clinical Psychology ~ 1991

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Clinical Supervisor: March 2007 ~ Present

St. Jude Medical Center/Comm. Srvs/Sr. Srvs.

Barry Ross, RN, MPH, MBA, Vice President Healthy Communities / St. Jude Medical Center

Manage all aspects of Senior Services and Community Care Navigation Departments, including operations, hiring, staffing, training, etc. Interview, train, and supervise potential student interns. Develop and implement grants targeting the needs of the senior community, manage grants, statistics gathering, tracking and invoicing. Manage St. Jude Senior Medical Transportation program, the in-home depression counseling and depression/anxiety support group programs, Caring Neighbor's program, develop and promote classes to the senior community, facilitate bereavement group, host the North Orange County Senior Collaborative, maintain current health related-referral and resource services for seniors, supervise community programs and events, act as a resource to local agencies in developing programs/services for the senior community, and work to address gaps in services for the elderly. Manage Homeless Services and Chemical Dependency programs, coordinate between OC Whole Person Care, oversee Warren House Project, Act as a liaison between community members, city agencies, hospital staff, physician groups, churches and other community based agencies. Supervise license eligible social work and MFT interns.

HCA ASR 18-000969 Page 1 of 3

Clinical Director: July 2000 ~ February 2007

New Alternatives, Inc./Family Support Services Susan Shannon, MSW ~ Program Manager

Duties: Supervised OC's largest Social Services Agency Wraparound Program, including 8-10 teams of Wraparound Care Coordinators, Parent Partners, and Youth Partners in a direct-service, in-home case management program focused on working with social services families who have experienced the loss/removal of a child. Strong emphasis on strength-based, compassionate family re-building, addressing client's needs and accessing a wide variety of helpful community resources. Also responsible for maintaining MediCal & Social Services Agency Charts, mandated paperwork, Master Treatment Plans, Client Service Plans, progress notes, etc. for the families served by the agency. Additionally, provided clinical supervision for 20 staff and their cases/families, and ran various groups (family, problem solving, communication, grief & loss, budget planning, behavioral management, etc.). Work with a multi-disciplinary team of professionals focusing on remediation, crisis intervention, accessing community resources, teaching coping & communication skills. Also regularly supervise MFT & MSW interns.

Psychotherapist: August 1999 ~ 2000

New Alternatives, Inc. / Adolesc. Group Home Tim Farley, MSW ~ Program Director

Duties: Included working with children and adolescents who had been removed from their homes for various reasons, focused on stabilization, assessment and evaluation, utilized cognitive behavioral therapy & solution focused skills. Worked closely with County Social workers, Court appointed attorney's therapists, teachers, psychiatrists, etc., toward coordination of care for each child. Addressed behavioral problems, eating D/O's, grief and loss, learning and developmental D/O's, related family issues, developed treatment modalities and interventions.

Psychotherapist: September 1992 ~ Present
Barthel, Dupée, & Madrid Counseling Services
1633 E. 4th Street, Suite #214

Duties: Private practice which includes assessing, evaluating and diagnosing prospective clients, preparing written observations and progress notes, developing treatment goals and plans, providing crisis intervention when necessary, conducting regular individual and family/group therapy sessions, establishing and maintaining effective therapeutic relationships with clients and making appropriate adjunct referrals. Population treated includes specialty with children and adolescents, as well as work with adults (individuals, couples and families). Treat depressive D/O's, anxiety D/O's, relationship issues, post partum depression, developmental D/O's, PTSD, etc.

Special Educ. Therapist: February 1996 ~ August 1999
Speech & Language Development Center
Gladys Gleason, MFCC ~ Supervisor

Duties: Involved therapeutic counseling with special needs/developmentally disabled adolescents and adults, behavioral management classes, focused on problem solving techniques, communication skills and transition to the community. Worked with community agencies, local resources, including local public schools, regional centers, group homes, social services agencies, etc., to facilitate student training and transition to adulthood programs.

Mental Health Worker: January 1991 ~ February 1996
Charter Behavioral Health Hospital
Barbara Park, R.N. Director of Nurses

Duties: Worked one-on-one with short-term and chronic psychiatric patients (geriatric, adolescent and adults) on the unit, ran various groups, focused on stabilizing and deescalating patients as needed, monitoring their progress, discussed discharge planning & treatment team.